CRIME AND CASUALTY

Some Revolting Deeds of Brutality.

LOST ON A BURNING BOAT

Rescuing Workmen From an English Mine—Children Ravished and Murdered.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 5.—Near Bordswell, Ky., this morning, Rubie and Mary Ray, aged 10 and 16, respectively, daughters of John S. Ray, were brutally outraged and then murdered by unknown men, their throats being cut. There is no definite clew to the identity of the brutes who committed the crime, but the manner of the work points to one man and the use of a razor indicates that it was a negro. There is great excitement.

AFTER THE MURDERER.

All Avenues Watched for Fredericks.

MARYSVILLE, July 5.—Tonight every road leading into this city from the hills on both sides of the river is watched by officers looking for Fredericks, the murderer of Brakeman Bruce and the supposed slayer of Sheriff Pascoe. What are considered reliable advices tend to show that he is headed this way and is traveling by night.

That Fredericks is the man there seems to be no doubt, as a flume tender named Henderson at Jones' bar on the Yuba, not a great distance from North Bloomfield, was accosted by a man on Monday night and on being shown Fredericks' photograph positively identified him.

A Chinaman and a small boy at Jones' Bar also saw a man who admitted that he was suspected of killing Pascoe, and said that he would not be taken alive.

From Jones' Bar he started west and it was thought he would come out at Sucker Flat near Smartsville, but the watchers that were put on failed to get a sight of him. Since then Railroad Detective True has obtained what he considers reliable information that Fredericks got out of the lower foothills, as no one answering his description had appeared at any of the public houses on the roads.

Auburn—Sheriff William C. Conroy was here last night, but left again for Smart's valley, Yuba county, in search of Fredericks, the murderer of Sheriff Pascoe of Nevada county. He took with him a new invoice of arms and ammunition. Sheriff Conroy has under his command a large number of officers and detectives and believes he will get his man before many hours.

Shot Himself.

KANSAS CITY, July 5.—William A. Campbell, foreman of the Union Pacific working crew, came to Kansas City last evening to celebrate the Fourth. He wore red, white and blue striped trousers and a coat made of flags. As he entered a saloon he crowded against Homer Baker and was struck in the mouth. He struck back with a heavy cane and the latter cut Campbell in the left groin, severing an artery. The man died in his strange costume in the saloon. Baker fled to Wyandotte. This morning he learned from the papers that Campbell was dead, and securing a revolver he shot himself in the head and died in two hours.

Murdered for Money.

STOCKTON, July 5.—George Aibanasin, the Austrian who kept a wayside saloon on the Copperopolis road three miles from this city, was murdered last night. He was found today lying dead in the doorway of a small room which opened from the barroom. An examination of the body showed that he was killed by a shot from a large pistol or rifle which struck the heart. His pockets were turned inside out and the place had been ransacked for money, which leads to the conclusion that robbery was the object of the crime. No clew to the murderer.

A Brave Woman.

PRESCOTT, A. T., July 5.—Mrs. J. B. Lowery, wife of Sheriff Lowery of this county, arrested a Mexican horse thief this morning. A Mexican who had stolen a horse approached the house pursued by a deputy. Mrs. Lowery grabbed a six-shooter and ran out of the house, intercepting the man as he came around the corner of a corrall. Pulling the six-shooter on him she commanded him to halt and throw up his hands, which he did, and she compelled him to wait until the deputy arrived and took him in custody.

Blood All Around.

INEZ, Ky., July 5.—Wallace Doeskin was shot and killed Sunday at Nolan, W. Va., by Andrew Farmey, during a drunken row. The assassin was pursued and surrendered on Monday night, but he fired on his pursuers and fatally wounded George Doeskin and a man named Thompson. In the confusion he made his escape, but the posse continued the pursuit and he was captured.

A Tough Less.

TAHLEQUAH, I.T., July 5.—While riding near his home, about twelve miles east of this place, James Christie was murdered last evening. He was a son of the notorious Ned Christie who gave the United States officers so much trouble until killed in his fort last fall. He is also a nephew of Ball Christie, who is in jail at this place, sentenced to be hanged August 18th.

Caught With a Bomb.

MADRID, July 5.—The police arrested last evening a man carrying a bomb under his coat in the immediate neighborhood of the house of ex-Premier Canobas del Castille. A bomb was exploded before the ex-Premier's house a few weeks ago.

In the Undertow.

PHILADELPHIA, July 5.—Two of the passengers who went to Cape May on the steamer Republic were swept out to sea while bathing yesterday afternoon and drowned. One was H. W. Wise of Roxborough, a railway mail clerk on the route between New York and Pittsburg, and the other was Morritz Goldsmith, 18 years old, of this city. Wise was an expert swimmer, and is supposed to have been caught in the treacherous undertow. Goldsmith could not swim.

A Disastrous Runaway.

NEW YORK, July 5.—This afternoon a cable car became unmanageable on Broadway, near city hall park, and started on the rampage toward the Battery. The runaway car crashed into the rear platform of a horse car, both horses being thrown and the traces being torn away. With the partly demolished horse car ahead, the still unmanageable cable car continued its rush. It encountered a blockade of horses and wagons, when the cars cut a passage through the blockade. Horses were stretched upon the ground and about five wagons rendered fit for the repair shop, while several drivers were bruised. Somebody finally notified the power house and the cable was stopped.

Rescuing the Bodies.

LONDON, July 5.—The work of rescuing living miners and recovering bodies of the dead is being pushed as rapidly as possible in Ingram's colliery, Thornville. Late this evening the rescuers brought eighty-eight bodies to the surface. Two men were brought up in an unconscious condition, but were still breathing and hopes are entertained that they will recover. Six men who sustained no injury, but are imprisoned behind the debris, were dug out this evening. No reason is given for the explosion, but the conjecture is that it was caused by carelessness on the part of one of the miners in opening a lamp.

Great Destruction.

READING, Pa., July 5.—This city was visited by a rain and hail storm this afternoon which for destructiveness eclipsed all previous storms of the kind since 1866. The streets of the city were covered with hail and water and the sewers became choked up. Grain, corn, oats, flower gardens, grapes and other fruits were stripped off like leaves. South of Reading the wheat, rye and oat crops were leveled to the ground and many fields flooded. It is believed the damage in the Schuylkill valley will reach many thousands of dollars.

Burned While Asleep.

ST. PAUL, July 5.—At 10.30 a fire broke out in a floating house for river men anchored at the foot of Jackson street, and in less than five minutes the boat was a seething mass of fire. There were a number of persons on board asleep and before all could be aroused two women and a man were burned to death. Four men were rescued alive, but their injuries will probably prove fatal.

Both Drowned.

SPOKANE, July 5.—On Potlach creek yesterday two brothers, Albert and Lee Thornson, were in the creek spearing salmon. Albert was swept into a big hole and his brother jumped in and tried to save him, but both were drowned.

VERY WARM.

President Palmer Reads a Riot Act.

CHICAGO, July 5.—President Palmer stirred the World's Fair National Commission this afternoon on the Sunday opening question. He argued the adoption of the Fansley resolution, which has for its purpose the closing of the gates on Sunday.

After an expression of views by several commissioners President Palmer spoke, saying: "I'm sick and tired of the petty evasion that pretends an opening of the gates on Sunday in accordance with law. If the motion to adopt the resolution is lost I shall move a reconsideration and keep it up so long as the commissioners sustain me."

Commissioner Martindale asked for a postponement until a written opinion could be obtained from Chief Justice Fuller, which, it was claimed, would settle the contentions. Palmer assented, and the commission adjourned.

Banks Reopen.

SAN DIEGO, July 5.—Bank Examiner Pauly yesterday received definite instructions from Comptroller Eckels authorizing the First National bank of this city to resume business this morning. The officers of the bank are naturally very jubilant that the institution has so thoroughly proven its soundness, and point to the fact that theirs is the first National bank in the state, or, for that matter, west of the Missouri river, to resume business after the panic. The bank was accordingly turned over by Examiner Pauly to the officers, without restriction or condition, and was opened promptly at 10 o'clock this morning. Absolute confidence has been established, heavy deposits being made and no withdrawals.

Pleasing for Travelers.

CHICAGO, July 5.—The Union Pacific announced today that, beginning on Sunday, it will make a first class rate of $33.60 east bound rates from Por land, Spokane, Butte and Helena to Chicago. This is likely to lead to a reduction of rates in the association territory. There will be a meeting of the Western Passenger Association tomorrow, and unless signs fail it will end in the establishment of a one-fare rate for round trip to Chicago during the fair.

Wants Too Much Power.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—A proposition is talked of for a resolution at the extra session giving to the President the power to suspend until such time as he may see fit the purchase of silver bullion. It does not meet with approval, and silver men say they would fight such a proposition with as much vigor as they will the repeal of the Sherman law, for they believe the effect of such a resolution in the hands of Cleveland, whose views on silver are known, would be the same as a repeal.

Gray's Opinion Filed.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Justice Gray, who delivered the opinion in the supreme court of the United States in the famous Geary law cases in May last, filed with the clerk of the court a formal test documen with Justice Gray's opinion. He also filed the dissenting opinion of Chief Justice Fuller and Justices Brewer and Field. Full abstracts of opinion were published at the time the decision of the court was announced.

Mgr. Satolli.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—Monsignor Satolli, the Papal delegate, arrived in his special car from St. Paul via Portland this morning. He was met by a delegation of local priests by whom he was escorted to the residence of Archbishop Riordan, whose guest he will be during his sojourn in San Francisco.

To Take a Look.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Secretary Hoke Smith, accompanied by members of his family, will leave Washington next Saturday for a tour of the west. He will view the Yellowstone National park and several Indian reservations, and expects to return to Washington by August 1st.

California Again.

WASHINGTON PARK, July 5.—Wildwood, the $10,000 California star, opened today's racing with a record breaking performance, covering a mile and seventy yards in 1.44.

CONSPIRACY SQUELCHED

Very Exciting Times at Honolulu.

ROYAL DYNAMITERS ARRESTED

Claus Spreckels Frightened by a Significant Skull and Cross Bones Placard.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—A press correspondent at Honolulu writing under date of June 28th says:

"The government has executed what has been for some time in view, the arrest of the ascertained agents in the royalist dynamite conspiracy. On the afternoon of Friday, June 23d, simultaneous arrests were made of T. B. Walker, Archibald Sinclair and E. C. Crick on the charge of conspiracy to seize the executive building and overturn the government. The offense is not bailable, and the prisoners have been held in confinement pending examination.

The government has known something of this conspiracy for three months past and for several weeks has possessed much exact information. A very conservative policy has been pursued and no arrests made until the evidence was entirely complete against the accused. This evidence waf submitted to four legal advisors and pronounced sufficient.

More arrests are likely to be made at any time, but none without ample evidence to justify the action. The use of dynamite was a chief means of the scheme of the conspirators.

It is believed that no evidence implicates Paul Neumann or Claus Spreckels, although the conspirators had sanguine hopes of pecuniary aid from the latter.

Much consternation followed the arrests, resulting in additional information being contributed by persons implicated. A general effect of demoralization has been produced among the Royalists, whose chief plot for the restoration of the Queen has now collapsed.

Mr. Blount has stated that he has not sent forward any report, but will take it with him. Mr. Blount has hopes that his successor will arrive by the steamer of July 12th, and to leave himself on July 19th.

On the 22d Spreckels found a placard on his gate with a skull and cross bones and a menacing message. He was much excited, and immediately sent a note to Minister Blount, demanding protection. Blount enclosed it to President Dole, who sent it to the Marshal, who provided a guard for Spreckels' place.

The Citizens' reserve, which now number between 600 and 700 men, are armed with Springfield rifles, and the Annexation club, most of whose members belong to the reserve, play quite an important part in another plot. In the event of a Royalist outbreak, certain prominent supporters of the ex-queen are marked for slaughter. A member of the Citizens' reserve has given out a list of names of those Royalists who are to be killed at the first sign of trouble. It includes nearly all the Royalists' leaders.

It is said also that the ex-Queen and Claus Spreckels will be disposed of. With all the talk of conspiracy and murder, there is hardly any possibility of trouble. The handful of white and half-white agitators who might be disposed to make trouble realize that they could not stand before the well disciplined and well armed forces of the provisional government; therefore any threats that are made should be taken as idle boastings of men without the power to execute their ferocious desires.

Riotous Students.

PARIS, July 5.—There was a rioting of students at 9.30 o'clock tonight and at 11 o'clock there was a sanguinary encounter on the Rue De Secoles. Exact details are wanting, but it is known that the Republican guards charged the rioters with drawn swords and the police opened fire with revolvers. One man was killed with a cut from a sabre, and the injured were taken to neighboring drug stores where their wounds were dressed. Another mob set fire to a tram car and burned it to ashes. The assistant brigadier of police found a drowned man near Grenall bridge and it is supposed he had been thrown into the water by the mob. Two hundred persons were arrested tonight for participating in the disturbance.

Granted Writs.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., July 5—Ten Choctaw Indians, sentenced to be shot Friday next for participation in the killing of six Indians of the Jones faction last fall, were tonight granted writs of habeas corpus by Judge Stewart. Officers are now on their way to serve the writs and some trouble is apprehended. The writs were granted on the ground that the Indians did not have fair trials.

Want Exclusion.

NEW YORK, July 5.—At a meeting of the executive board of the American Federation of Labor today a resolution was adopted to the effect that the executive council arrange for an interview with President Cleveland for the purpose of urging the adoption of the eight hour law, and also to protest against any understanding between the United States and China to annul or modify the exclusion act.

Not Grover's Friends.

DENVER, July 5.—At Cripple Creek and in some of the other mining camps in Colorado, flags were at half mast yesterday as an expression of the feeling of the inhabitants on account of the determination of the administration to demonetize silver.

He is Safe.

BUZZARD'S BAY, July 5.—It is understood that the yacht Oneida, with the President aboard, is in Buzzard's Bay. A heavy thunder storm is prevailing.

The lost presidental party has been found. They are all right.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

In Mecca 260 persons died of cholera yesterday. In Jeddo 490 died.

Harry Gilson, 21 years old, was drowned while bathing at Santa Ana last evening.

Tuscaloosa, the old ante-bellum capital of Alabama, celebrated the Fourth of July for the first time since the war.

The World's Fair National Commission met in Chicago at noon yesterday, and for the first time since its organization immediately went into secret session.

Justice Blatchford at Newport, R. I., is practically given up, though he may live a week or ten days. His physician says that he is able to take only liquid nourishment and is fast growing weaker.

Wants to Know.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 5.—Congressman Joseph H. Washington, chairman of the house committee on territorial affairs, left tonight for an extended trip through the territories in order to familiarsze himself with their condition. He will go as far west as California and will be gone until just before the meeting of congress.

A COMPLIMENTARY OPINION.

The Fresno Exhibit Receives Some Attention.

The following is a sample of complimentary letters being received by the Board of Trade which indicates that the county exhibit is attracting attention and that the state exhibit is a very creditable one:

CINCINNATI, June 30, 1893.

GENTLEMEN,—Will you kindly forward on receipt of this any book or paper or otherwise giving me an idea of Fresno products and advantages. I wish to interest myself in some way ere long. The beautiful exhibit of California in all its grandness is shown in the most approved and artistic style imaginable and I have heard many hundred comments on it. I spent many hours looking and gazing at some of the exquisite designs. If it is not too much trouble kindly send me the most popular daily paper of Fresno and oblige. Very respectfully,

C. E. VOLK,

Care of George W. McAlpin & Co., Cincinnati, O.

How Not to Exterminate the Indians.

Let us not vigorously crowd the Indians to abandon tribal organization. If this is done before they are ready for it, they will surely lapse into degradation. Let them remain in compact bodies on reservations to help one another over the change and do not compel them to commingle and compete with the white race in a struggle in which they must be hopelessly doomed. Slowly by law and by instruction teach them the value of our property laws. Do not force citizenship upon them, but let them sue for it. We should hold ourselves ever ready to grant it, but let them first discover its benefits. If such a policy is maintained for two generations more, the problem will be solved—the remnant of the Indians will be saved and absorbed in modern enlightenment.—Major J. W. Powell in Forum.

A GOOD APPOINTMENT.

T. C. WHITE ONE OF THE WORLD'S FAIR JUDGES.

He Will Have to Pass Upon the Awards on All Raisins Exhibited.

T. C. White of this city has been notified of his appointment as one of the judges of award at the World's Fair in Chicago, and will leave for that city next Saturday.

The special duties assigned to him in conjunction with others will be to pass upon the merits of the raisin exhibit from all parts of the world placed in competition at the fair.

Mr. White was one of the pioneers in the business in Fresno, and was eminently successful as a grower and packer, and is thoroughly capable to pass upon the merits of the product submitted for examination.

He has of his own pack secured a number of premiums from the state and other fairs, and will beyond question do credit to himself and to the county.

Disrobed in the Street.

There is a young colored damsel in Washington whose soul is at present filled with wrath because of the summary action taken by a society woman to whom she had been handmaiden. With ways that are dark and tricks that are vain the young woman proved herself conversant by making away with articles of value. Among these was a silk dress of which her mistress had been especially fond. Though accused of the theft, the woman stoutly denied it and took her dismissal, vehemently protesting her innocence. Not long afterward, as the daughter of Ham was sailing down the street in all the glory of the stolen garment, she came upon her mistress rapidly walking toward her with the look of a great purpose in her eye.

Retreat was impossible, as was a failure to comply with the astonishing demand that she then and there divest herself of the gown. As the alternative was to be immediately handed over to the police, the perturbed young woman did as she was bid with all speed possible, and in as brief a time as it takes to tell the tale she stood with her ebony perfections exposed to public view while in an opposite direction her former mistress walked away, bearing in triumph the stolen property.—Kate Field's Washington.

CALIFORNIA ought to have the Midwinter Fair as a means of getting back some of the money we have sent to Chicago, if for no other reason.

NEW YORK city is advertising herself as a summer resort, but there are not so many people going there as to that other place of which the devil is the mayor.

DEMOCRATIC leaders are about agreed that the next house of representatives will have to adopt the rules of the Tom Reed congress if any business is to be accomplished.

CAPITAL has crawled into its hole and most of it will stay there until congress has taken action on the silver and tariff questions. "Paralyzed by uncertainty" exactly describes the business situation.

FRESNO, through her Board of Trade, warmly indorses the proposed Stockton & Bakersfield Railroad. The only proviso that Fresno makes in offering her aid to the important project is that San Francisco will first pledge herself to contribute her full share to the enterprise.

JUDGE LORIGAN of San Jose has knocked out the new ordinance prohibiting the holding of meetings in the streets of that city by the Salvation Army. The Judge has saved the proposed capital city from a reputation for intolerance that does not belong to an enlightened modern community.

THE outlook for the building of the Stockton & Bakersfield road is improving. San Francisco has evidently reached a point where she realizes the necessity of reaching out for the business that is turning in other directions, and will be forced into this enterprise as a matter of self preservation. The only means of saving some people seems to be to bring them to the verge of ruin, and San Francisco is now in excellent condition to be saved.

THE revenues of the Queen of England and Empress of India are something like $2,000,000 a year. The contribution of $500 made by the Queen for the benefit of the widows and orphans of the brave men carried down in the battleship Victoria again brings before the public the fact that Her Majesty has a distinctly economical turn of mind. In fact, the royal prudence in money matters is so great that if it were not royal the world might call it by a less polite but more truthful name.

PRESIDENT HILL of the Great Northern railroad is nothing unless thoroughly aggressive in the matter of World's Fair rates from the west. Not content with the $25 and $18 rates from Seattle to St. Paul, he has extended the scope of this road's influence to San Francisco. From this port to Seattle arrangements have been made to forward passengers by boat, meals and berths included, and from the Golden Gate to St. Paul the rates are $41 and $26 for first and second class passages. This latest reduction carries the rate war into new territory and will probably involve all the western transcontinental lines unless it be withdrawn. The Great Northern has only to establish rates with some St. Paul connection to force a very low tariff from the Pacific Coast to Chicago.

THERE is a flavor of romance, spiced with the turf and seasoned with stratagem, in the midsummer tale that comes over the wires from Georgia. It is a tale of a maiden and her method of selecting a husband. The lady in the case is equipped with a Georgia colonel as a parent and had all the youth of Yorkville at her feet. Her choice lay between two, and, in accordance with all the unwritten laws of romance, one was rich and one was poor. Apparently unable to decide between the rivals, the Southern maiden sent for them both and for the minister, and announced that the one who should ride to Dallas, the county seat, nineteen miles away, and first return with a license should have her hand.

Away the lovers sped. The young woman's family gathered upon the front veranda to await their return. At last far down the dusty road appeared a galloping horseman. It was the rich lover. He was alone. Where was his poor rival? Nearer and nearer to the waiting maid rode a fortune on horseback. Were all the precedents of chivalry to be violated? At the last moment out of the woods through which he had taken a short cut dashed the penniless knight, and placed his license in the hands of the blushing maiden. The minister at once performed his duty, and the defeated equestrian gracefully joined in the festivities that followed.

It may seem that the Georgia maiden put fortune and happiness to an undiscriminating test. But after all it is but fair to assume that while she was aware that the rich candidate for her hand had the better horse, the poor lover had the longer head.

MAJOR S. G. BROCK, the retired chief of the bureau of statistics at Washington, says the San Jose Mercury, who for years past has made a special study of commercial movements, and is more familiar with the facts of trade than almost any other man in the country, has recently published through the Chicago Inter-Ocean a long review of the existing commercial depression, in which he offers the most rational explanation of the present condition of affairs which has yet appeared.

Major Brock is not among the advocates of silver coinage, and yet he points out that the Sherman act has had little or nothing to do with the situation, and says: "The fact that the United States purchases every month 4,500,000 ounces of silver, amounting to about $45,000,000 during a year, for which it pays treasury coin notes which are redeemable in silver or gold, has no more to do with the drawing of gold out of the country than the expenditure of $45,000,000 for rivers and harbors, or $30,000,000 for ships of war, or hundreds of millions for other purposes has, because these greenbacks, treasury notes, etc., paid out for the purposes mentioned, are redeemable in gold or silver, some of them in gold only."

The real cause of the flow of gold to Europe is declared to be due to the fact that Europe is the creditor of the world, and the great collapse in Argentia and Australia has caused the creditor countries to call in their money. Moreover the stagnation of trade in South America, and in many of the British colonies, has compelled European manufacturers and merchants to send the goods intended for those countries to the United States in order to find a market for them at any price. In consequence of this the United States market has been flooded with manufactured goods, thus causing a fall of prices here and an export of gold. This is a common sense view of the situation based upon the facts of trade and affords a complete explanation of the outflow of gold, which is more than can be said of the theories of those who attribute it to some mysterious operation of the Sherman Act.

THE HEATH TRIAL

Rank Perjury on One Side or the Other.

ENGINEER NORTON'S SLIPPERS

Ex-Policeman Grady's Unsuccessful Run After the Shooting—Johnson Corners a Witness.

The defense in the Heath trial made a better showing yesterday, having introduced testimony tending to disprove that of Policeman Johnston, Carpenter Gordon and S. S. Culver, whose evidence was flatly contradicted.

Mrs. Heath, the mother, and Miss Heath, sister of the defendant, sat by the side of the prisoner, and were attentive listeners to the testimony.

No attempt has been made to produce the suicide theory, and it is reported that the defense will not make any attempt in that direction.

Harry L. Coolidge, carpenter at the Curtis vineyard, said that he saw Heath and John Henry return to the Curtis vineyard with a four-horse team at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of August 29th. Half an hour afterwards Heath went to Sanger in a buggy on an errand for Mr. Curtis and returned at 8 p. m. Gordon was at dinner with the rest of the men at about 6.30 o'clock, but Heath was not there. The witness saw Heath there until somewhere between 9 and 10 o'clock.

The Fairview vineyard is fourteen miles from Fresno. The witness had often made the trip, though not traveling in a hurry, from an hour and a quarter to an hour and a half.

This evidence was introduced for the purpose of rebutting that of Gordon who testified that Heath acted strangely at the table and that of Culver who swore that on the same night at about 9 o'clock Heath was in Fresno and poked a pistol in Culver's face.

"Did you have any conversation with the witness Gordon in which Gordon told you what his interest in it was?" asked Mr. Deuprey.

The objection to this question was sustained.

On cross-examination by Mr. Johnson the witness said that he was born in 1861 and came from Berkeley on August 6th of last year to work on the Curtis ranch. He got a better offer somewhere else, but lost his job because he had to attend court as a witness in this case.

"Who told you that you had to attend court every morning?" asked Mr. Johnson.

"Mr. Thompson."

"Did you tell Mr. Thompson that you would lose your job if you attended court here?"

"No, sir."

An objection being raised to this line of examination Mr. Johnson remarked:

WHOSE PLASTIC HAND?

"I merely desired to know by whose plastic hand he has been moulded into the witness we now have before us."

"Now, now," said Mr. Foote in a bantering tone, "does not that language lay you open to the rebuke that I got the other day?"

The witness was asked as to the persons with whom he had conversed about the case and he replied that Detective Bury was the first man he had conversed with. He had also talked with Mr. Foote. At the invitation of M. B. Curtis the witness, Mr. Foote and others dined together a few days ago in the New Depot hotel in this city.

"Did you not on the 20th of last February, yourself, Lee Blasingame, Stilwell and M. B. Curtis being the only persons present, did you not tell those gentlemen that Heath after his arrival on the ranch on the day of the McWhirter murder hitched up a horse and drove off on his own account saying that he was going to Sanger and you didn't know why he was going, and when he returned late at night he slept in the barn with some men?"

"I never made any such statement as that."

The witness first heard of the death of McWhirter when the witness was at supper at about 6 or 6.30 p.m. John Henry told the men about it. About dark, about 8 o'clock, a two-mule team hitched to a wagon ran away through the vineyard and Heath was hurt in trying to stop the runaway.

AN ENGINEER'S SLIPPERS.

John J. Norton, locomotive engineer for the Southern Pacific company, testified that he lived on San Joaquin street at the corner of M street, opposite A. M. Clark's barn. He heard two shots on the night of the murder. He went out and crossed San Joaquin street diagonally and into the alley, and into the McWhirter yard through the opening in the fence made by the removal of the two boards. It was 10 or 12 minutes after the shooting before he left his house and wore a pair of carpet slippers. When he got half way through the alley he met Charles Packard, the soda water manufacturer, and another man. They turned back with him and went to the McWhirter yard. The witness walked in the alley south of the McWhirter yard as far as the shed next the McWhirter residence.

The witness produced a pair of smooth soled carpet slippers as the ones he wore that night. It was a pretty dark night, and he did not recognize Mr. Packard until he got close up to him. He was not sure whether George Rupert was the man with Packard or not. They had a lantern with them and were examining tracks. The witness did not cross Calaveras street.

THE STABLE EPISODE.

John Henry, son of the proprietor of Henry's livery stable on J street near Tulare, testified that he met Heath on the night of August 28th at about half-past 11 o'clock and remained with him until half-past 12 o'clock, when he left Heath at the ladies' entrance to the Grand Central hotel. Heath said he was going to bed.

The witness went into the stable, turned down the gas and went to bed. Heath did not come to the stable that night so far as the witness knew. The witness next saw Heath at half-past 7 o'clock on the morning of the murder. They were to go to the Curtis ranch that morning, but the trip was deferred until 1 o'clock in the afternoon. At that time Henry drove Heath to the Blasingame residence and then to McWhirter's residence, where Heath got out of the wagon and went inside the house, remaining there 5 or 10 minutes. Heath got into the buggy and they drove to the Barton vineyard, where they had a few drinks of wine and then went to the Curtis vineyard. They arrived there between half-past 4 and 5 o'clock. Mr. Curtis ordered Heath to go to Sanger, and Heath hitched up a horse and buggy. He returned at about half-past 7 o'clock or a little later. He had gone away before dinner. The witness next saw Heath going to bed at about half-past 9 o'clock. The witness saw Heath in the Curtis stable at about half-past 5 o'clock the next morning. Heath did not take care of the horses. He was looking around there.

When the witness slept in the front office of the Henry stables on the night preceding the murder he heard no noises there and did not hear anybody come in.

HENRY'S BUSINESS.

On the cross-examination the witness said he was not engaged in any business. Prior to a week ago last Sunday he worked for Jay Scott and Phil Scott from the time Sheriff Scott went into office. Before that he used to work for his father.

The witness did not remember whether Heath told him anything about the killing of McWhirter.

"A little matter of a man being killed in Fresno at that time didn't impress you much, did it?"

"I think it did; at that time as much as any other time. Heath told Mr. Curtis about the killing. That was before Heath left for Sanger."

The witness did not remember whether Mrs. Curtis was present when Curtis ordered Heath to go to Sanger. If she had been there he would have seen her. He did not see her.

"Did you ever refuse to tell Mr. Walser what you knew about the case?"

"Yes sir."

"Why?"

HIS RETICENCE.

"For the simple reason that I didn't want to make any statement."

"You talked with Thomas Bury, Reel B. Terry, Mr. Foote, Mr. Deuprey, your father and your brother about it?"

"Yes sir."

"And your only reason why you refused to tell the assistant district attorney what you knew was that you didn't want to make any statement?"

"Yes sir."

"Why didn't you tell Sheriff Scott what you knew about this case?"

"Because he never asked me."

"Didn't your father ask you what you knew?"

"I think so, but I am not sure."

The witness told his brother what he knew about the case after Heath was arrested. The witness visited the jail several times and had conversations with Heath regarding the case. Heath asked the witness to tell what he knew about the case. The witness used to go to the jail to visit Hi Rapelje and he believed that it was after this trial commenced.

"Don't you know that Mr. Rapelje has not been a jailor since this trial commenced?"

The witness did not remember whether it was before or after the trial commenced. On second thought the witness was of the opinion that these conversations were had with Heath before the trial commenced. On being asked again he said that he was not sure whether it was before or after. Heath requested him to tell Bury what he knew about the matter. The witness believed that he and Heath conversed about the murder when they were going from Fresno to the Curtis ranch.

"Didn't you say in Scott's saloon last Thursday in the presence of Mark Walser, Cy Renfro, Charles Bedford and Edward Sparrowhawk that Heath on the way to the ranch did not say a word to you about the murder?"

THE SIGN LANGUAGE.

"No, sir; I made no such statement. Walser asked me whether Heath had talked with me about the murder, and I shook my head, meaning that I didn't want to tell Walser anything about it."

The witness illustrated the manner in which he shook his head—from side to side.

"Don't you know when you shake your head that way it means no?" asked Mr. Johnson.

The witness replied that on the occasion he was testifying about it did not mean no; it meant that he didn't want to tell Walser anything about it.

"Do you mean to tell me that you are 22 years old and don't know that that kind of a shake means no?" asked Mr. Johnson. "Now, honest Injun, don't you know it means no?"

Mr. Foote objected to the question, and the court adjourned for the noon recess.

During the examination of this witness he answered two or three of Mr. Johnson's questions "by the card" after the manner of the grave digger in Hamlet, and Mr. Johnson repeated the questions, and insisted that they should be answered categorically. To this an objection was made, and Mr. Johnson explained:

"This witness is trying to be witty at my expense, but I won't get angry at that and call him a perjured villain. I shall treat him politely."

On Sunday, the day before the killing, the witness was not positive whether it was in the afternoon or the forenoon, Heath hired him to go to the ranch. They were to start on Monday morning at 7 o'clock.

"Did he have his hand in a sling when you met him on Monday morning?"

"I don't remember; he may have had."

"How many times in the past two years have you slept in your father's house; isn't it the fact that you have slept in your father's house very seldom during the last two or three years."

"Well, I was away a good deal of the time during the last two or three years."

The witness could not say whether it was before or after midnight that he parted from Heath at the Grand Central hotel. He denied that he had talked with Mr. Deuprey or anybody else at the noon recess about the case.

"Didn't you at the noon recess have a conversation at the corner of Mariposa and K streets with Mr. Deuprey?"

"Yes, sir."

A LAWYER'S INSTRUCTIONS.

"What did he tell you?"

"He told me if you asked me why I didn't tell Mr. Walser about this case to say something, but I have forgotten what it was."

"Your memory is not good as to that conversation?"

"No, sir; I remember now that he said that I should say that I couldn't put any confidence in Mr. Walser."

"You didn't think about that until Mr. Deuprey told you that?"

"No, sir."

"He wanted you to swear to it?"

"I don't know whether he wanted me to swear to that; I don't know whether he told me to say so or that I ought to have said so."

"Didn't I state to you," asked Mr. Deuprey, "in asking about that conversation in Scott's saloon—didn't I ask you whether or not the reason you didn't answer was that you hadn't confidence in Mr. Walser?"

"I didn't understand it that way."

"Then you say," asked Mr. Johnson, "that Mr. Deuprey, this gentleman here, one of the counsel for the defense, told you to say that?"

"Yes, sir."

When the witness went up to the jail to see Hy Rapelje Heath stepped up and asked the witness what he knew about the case. He spoke to the witness about the incidents of the night before the killing when they were on J street near the Bodega saloon.

POLICEMAN GRADY'S RUN.

Ex-Policeman A. N. Grady was examined by Mr. Terry. He was on the night watch last August, and among his duties was that of lighting and putting out the gas lamps in the streets. He was standing in front of the Park lodging house on Mariposa street and heard three shots and some screams, and then two or three more shots, and ran towards the direction of the shooting. About fifteen or twenty minutes afterwards he returned to Yost's store, and while he was standing there Sheriff Hensley came towards him from out of the park. They conversed there about fifteen or twenty minutes. Seaward, Daly and Spease drove up to the Monarch saloon in a spring wagon. The witness and Hensley were about fifty feet away at the time. Seaward unlocked the door. They all seemed to have been drinking somewhat. One of the men was lying between the seats and Seaward said, "Get out of here, you dirty —— of a——," and pulled him out of the wagon. They had a sack with turkeys in it. While the men were in the saloon Mr. Hensley left. One of the men got into the wagon and went away, and Grady went into the alley and got his saddle horse and went along his lamp route. The witness did not see Heath or Polley there at any time on that occasion. He left the place at about ten minutes to 4 o'clock.

On cross-examination the witness said that when he heard the shots he ran across the street to the alley across the Cranmer block and thence to Stanislaus street. He met a man with a lantern and this man went with him. He met a man on his return who said he was looking for his horse and wagon. Grady then returned to Mariposa street. He saw Hensley on K street coming out of the park.

The witness never talked with his brother, W. D. Grady, about the case, but he talked with Reel Terry about it last Tuesday evening. When Hensley walked out of the park a gas lamp was burning at the entrance to the park.

SAW NO PISTOL.

Henry G. Frick testified that he was working on the Curtis vineyard last August. He left the ranch with Heath on Sunday, the day before the killing at about 8.30 or 9.30 o'clock in the morning with a four horse hay wagon and arrived in Fresno at half-past 12 or 1 o'clock. Heath had no coat on, and the witness did not see any pistol on Heath's person. He had occasion to move Heath's coat during the ride, and there was no pistol in it. The witness, at the request of Heath, started back for the ranch at 5 o'clock in the afternoon in a Chinese wagon and remained there. He saw Heath between 4 and 6 the next afternoon on the ranch. A four-horse mule team that the witness was driving to bring two men into Fresno ran away. Mr. Heath was standing at the head of the mules and they broke away from him. That was about 9 o'clock in the evening.

Frick was brought here from Berkeley on an attachment as a defaulting witness.

A STATEMENT TO STILWELL.

Mr. Johnson objected to a question as to a conversation between Stilwell and Frick in the jail, and remarked: "There is not a ruling that your honor has made in this case that is not in exact accordance with the law."

The witness said that he was called into the jail office by Mr. Stilwell and the witness made a written statement to Stilwell. The objection to this line of examination was sustained and the answer was stricken out.

By permission of the court the witness was temporarily withdrawn and Charles J. Stilwell was recalled for the purpose of enabling the defense to ask him as to the statement alleged to have been made by Frick to Stilwell. He was asked whether Frick was called out to the jail office. He replied that he was and that Stilwell asked Frick whether he had seen Heath with a pistol on the day before the murder. After Coolidge had returned from Berkeley and said that Frick had told him that Frick had seen a pistol on Heath, the witness went to Berkeley and saw Frick and Frick then denied having made such a statement. He went back to Coolidge and Coolidge said that Frick had lied if he denied that statement and that he would swear to it in court. The witness asked Frick to tell him all he knew about the case and Frick made a statement of which Stilwell made some notes. He handed the notes to Mr. Walser.

Mr. Deuprey demanded the notes from the prosecution and Mr. Johnson refused to hand them over on the ground that they were private memoranda.

The Court sustained the position taken by Mr. Johnson. Mr. Johnson said that the witness, Stilwell, had been cross-examined for two full days, a longer cross-examination than had ever been held in the state of California.

Frick was recalled and stated that he had the interview with Stilwell at the jail on June 23d.

On the cross-examination the witness said that he was not very certain as to the time the interview was had. He never knew Heath to carry a pistol. Frick attended the room in which Heath slept on the ranch and never saw a pistol there.

SOME QUALIFICATIONS.

"You examined his valise and his trunk?"

"No sir."

"Then you didn't know whether he had a pistol or not?"

"No."

"He might have had a pistol without you knowing it?"

"Yes sir."

"Did you have a conversation with Coolidge in the hallway during recess?"

"Yes sir."

"Didn't you tell Coolidge you were making more money now than you ever did and that if you had known as much as you knew now you could have made $5000?"

"Coolidge and some other men were joshing and the little stout man made the remark about the $5000."

RUPERT AS AN EXHIBIT.

George Rupert was called in and was identified as the man who had made the $5000 remark. One of the men said that if Stilwell offered him $5000 he would put it in his pocket. It was all in a joke the witness explained.

G. C. Bloor, the next witness was with Policeman Johnston on J street, in front of Henry's livery stable, on the morning of the murder from 12 o'clock midnight until 12.30.

While there he did not see any men enter Henry's livery stable, and he did not remember hearing any voices in the stable. He did not see any light lit or put out at that time in Henry's stable. He did not say anything to the witness about recognizing the voice of any person. He did not hear any one say "leave that gas out," or anything like it. He could not say whether the gates of the stable were open or shut, and he did not see the gates swung open on that occasion. He heard no rattling of buggy shafts.

AN OBJECTIONABLE QUESTION.

"Did Mr. Stilwell or anybody connected with the prosecution offer you money to testify in this case?"

Mr. Johnson objected to the question on the ground that it was improper and insulting to the prosecution.

Mr. Deuprey said that he excepted the counsel for the prosecution.

Mr. Johnson went on: "If there is any human being in Fresno, no matter who, that will make that statement under oath to a justice of the peace, and the justice of the peace will issue a warrant, and the district attorney's office will help prosecute, my feeble efforts will be given voluntarily to prosecute him. The people of the prosecution are equal to any person connected with the defense, and more so."

The objection was sustained.

On the cross-examination the witness said that he had been working for the hack company for about a month, and before that time worked for nearly four months in Dan Maloney's villa.

"What is the general reputation of that house?" asked Mr. Johnson.

"I don't know."

"Now honest, between man and man," asked Mr. Johnson in a cajoling voice, "don't you know the reputation of the place?"

The witness hesitated, and smiled and after a long pause replied, "Not extra good."

THE VILLA'S REPUTATION.

"Don't you know it has a very bad reputation?"

"I never heard anybody speak very bad about it."

The witness was asked whether he had a conversation in the Villa with Special Policeman Ragsdale and Policeman Johnston in which Johnston spoke of being with Bloor and hearing Heath's voice in the livery stable, and whether Bloor did not say that Johnston's statement was correct and that he, Bloor, would swear to it in court.

The witness replied that he never used those words at all, and he never used that language in substance or effect. At another conversation between Johnston and Bloor, Johnston said that if Heath was convicted Bloor could come in for a share of the reward.

The court adjourned until 9.30 this morning.

THE NEW ROAD.

Indorsed by the Fresno Board of Trade.

MORE NEEDED THAN THE FAIR

The Stockton & Bakersfield Line Greeted with Open Arms by the Board.

The Fresno County Board of Trade held a meeting last night in the office of Thomas E. Hughes for the purpose of discussing subjects of vital interest to this county. Thomas E. Hughes presided over the meeting, and S. H. Cole acted as secretary.

The two most important subjects discussed were the proposed San Francisco & Bakersfield railroad, and the proposed Midwinter World's Fair at San Francisco. On motion of Frank H. Ball Fulton G. Berry was appointed a delegate to the Midwinter Fair executive committee. Mr. Berry in accepting the appointment remarked that he feared the Midwinter Fair movement might hamper the agitation of the railroad project. If one of them had to fall through he would prefer that the fair should be the one. The proposed railway would do Fresno county a thousand fold more good than would the Midwinter Fair. He was in favor of the railway from the first to the last. He had no doubt that the people of the San Joaquin valley counties would render all the assistance in their power.

"But," added Mr. Berry, "if the Stockton & Bakersfield road is playing second fiddle to the Midwinter Fair I don't want anything to do with it. While in San Francisco recently I had a conversation with Mr. Leeds and Barry Baldwin of the traffic association, and they asked me how much our people would contribute. I said that they would not contribute 25 cents until the company was incorporated and came to the San Joaquin valley with $750,000. Then there would be no trouble about raising the remaining $250,000."

Mr. Berry added that M. T. Jones, a prominent wholesale merchant of San Francisco, had expressed the opinion that the financial stringency would be over by the middle of July and that the San Francisco merchants proposed to build the road for their own protection.

"We can say that if they will incorporate we will give them the right of way and will do our proportion towards helping the road. When the San Francisco people shall have succeeded in raising $750,000 we will know that they mean business."

A resolution was unanimously adopted, expressing it as the sense of the meeting that a road through this valley will be of more benefit to the people than the Midwinter Fair; that a road from Bakersfield to Stockton will be the salvation of the entire valley, and the Board of Trade of Fresno county, speaking in behalf of the people of the county, tender the project their hearty support.

W. W. Phillips of the Farmer's Bank, O. J. Woodward of the First National Bank, Louis Einstein of the Bank of Central California, and W. H. McKenzie of the Fresno Loan and Savings Bank, were appointed a committee to ask the City Council and the Board of Supervisors to grant franchises and the right of way through the city and county to the new road.

Mr. Hughes called attention to the necessity of a fresh fruit exhibit for the Fresno county exhibit in the California building in Chicago, and the same committee was appointed to ask the supervisors for $1000 appropriation for that purpose.

It was decided to request Craigie Sharp to turn over into the Board of Trade $200 collected by him for the purpose of advertising Fresno county in the Los Angeles Herald. The Herald had declined to do the job for that sum and it was resolved to expend the amount in printing extra copies of the pamphlet recently issued in Chicago by M. Theo Kearney. The printing will be done in Chicago.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Fresno County Board of Trade heartily indorse the energy of M. Theo Kearney in the publication and free distribution of the pamphlet lately compiled by himself of the resources of Fresno county.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

The Fire Laddies Entertained Their Friends.

THE LADIES' CELEBRATION

A Large Crowd Attend the Exercises at the City Park.

The glorious Fourth as celebrated in Fresno was characterized by large areas of depressed fire crackers, want of noise and the air of quiet and rest which pervaded the town.

The proclamation of the Board of Trustees prohibiting the explosion of fire crackers was generally observed, the only arrest for the violation thereof being a raw Chinaman, who was immediately incarcerated.

The military contingent, accompanied by a large number of friends and ladies and the Uniform Rank K. of P. were aiding the Stocktonians to properly celebrate the day.

AGRICULTURAL ELOQUENCE.

Quite a number by train and private conveyance had gone to Pollasky, while still another large contingent had gone out to Smith's Grove on Fruit avenue to listen to that eminent agriculturist, Colonel W. H. Carston, elaborate on the beauties of freedom and farming, and also to hear him drop into poetry in a friendly way.

Of those who remained at home in a patriotic endeavor to retain the city charter, none seemed to have hit upon so reasonable a way of spending the day as the firemen. The engine houses were neatly decorated in honor of the day, and the boys were on hand ready to respond to any alarm, but the nearest approach to one was the lonely yawning of the police who got tired of doing nothing.

THE FIREMEN ENTERTAIN.

The boys kept open house to their friends at each of the engine houses and throughout the day dispensed their hospitality. They had prepared an abundance of cake, ice cream, fruit, lemonade, soda, etc., and had an elegant picnic from morning till night. This proved a very rational method of having a jolly good time and being ready for duty at the same time.

THE LADIES CELEBRATE.

In the evening the ladies' celebration in the park proved to be an immense affair. The crowd surpassed all expectations.

The speakers' stand was packed and jammed by a crowd so unreasonably noisy that little could be heard.

Mrs. L. E. Meade, president of the day, called for order and the exercises were opened with prayer by Mrs. I. D. Wood, which was followed by the hymn "America," sung by fifty odd young ladies in liberty costume, representing the states and territories.

WORK WELL DONE.

Next Miss Calla Ferrel essayed reading the Declaration of Independence, and notwithstanding the persistent gabble kept up in her immediate vicinity, and the staccatto squalling of three infants in arms whose presence emphasized the fact that this is a free country, she succeeded not only in reading that great document in excellent style, but also made herself heard.

Miss Balthis sang "The Star Spangled Banner" beautifully, and Master Rankin recited "The American Boy." Mrs. Quinn celebrated with a hornpipe, which was followed by a chorus.

ORATOR OF DAY.

Mrs. McIntosh was the orator of the occasion, but much that she said was not heard generally, the fainting of a lady in the audience having caused considerable confusion. Her remarks were as follows:

THE ORATION.

The constituents of that great, eternal spirit which governs all noble endeavors are law, love and life. Through its influence and magnitude all bodies are formed, controlled and perpetuated.

This fact avails nothing without capacity and appreciation. Commotion is the result of matter out of place. Then, judging from appearance, we must admit that many of the elements which naturally combine are out of their proper relation.

Law is the agency through which life is manifested, and love the mainspring of all good.

"O, Love Divine; O, Bliss complete,
To stand where all earth's best and noblest meet."

THE FLAG WE LOVE.

Today as we raise our eyes we behold this nation's glorious emblem waving peacefully over the heads of this vast throng, who are here assembled to express with us their gratitude to Him who inspired our noble forefathers when they, amid confusion and bigoted opposition, declared that "All men are born free and equal."

Unparalled phenomenon, this noble declaration; for men are not in existence till they are born—born of love, wisdom, purity and quickened into life eternal.

How the crowning work of creation begins when love illumines human intellect and fixes the soul until the tiniest thread of consciousness is master of the muscular bands through which it penetrates, the mighty structure is at once tuned in harmony with deity, and melodious strains (ne'er heard before) fall upon the anxious ear of the new born child as it hears the precious words, "I have come that ye might have life."

"Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness," is and always has been the sentiment of this nation. Today I appeal to you, my hearers, to let your own consciences answer this question. If to live we are born shall anyone dare to place an obstruction of any kind which will in any way retard our progress or deprive us of this glorious victory?

THE DEFICIENT MEDIUM.

We rejoice over national prosperity, fields of waving grain and orchards laden with nutritious fruits, of the many and varied inventions to facilitate labor and carry on trade with other nations, yet with all this we find the medium which unlocks commerce to be deficient or out of reach.

Who is chargeable with this error, this secret lock which closes the door with one party and the booty inside, and the masses with their produce on the outside, and who will suffer most from this blunder?

"Come now and let us reason together." Don't charge anybody or any party with these seeming failures; doubtless they are blessings in disguise, and our mistakes will be the means of greater discoveries. We murmur at our own doings and blame railroad corporations and banking institutions for what we are ignorantly encouraging.

A QUEER ANAMOLY.

Today we find that many of our so-called poverty stricken citizens have given their money to the railroads to carry them to some other city to celebrate when we are having a glorious time here in Fresno. But this is a free country, and we celebrate as it seems to us proper.

Before leaving this platform I deem it my duty to express my admiration for the patriotism and zeal which characterize the women of Fresno. Only a few days of time have been employed, and so little expenditure.

I am sure we have taught you, my brother, a lesson in political economy which may be the means of placing woman at the head in this one branch of science and write her name on history's sacred pages. Oh, won't it be delightful?

You know, my brother, we must have your assistance in all good work, and I want to tell you that our only expenditures in this celebration were when we were forced to call upon some of you for talent which we lacked. God bless you, you have helped to furnish the coin, scarce as it is.

CONCLUDING REMARKS.

I will say in conclusion that I am not a political aspirant nor partisan, yet I confidently trust that the day is dawning when woman will better comprehend her true mission, for then will she begin to shape her own fashions, and give herself all the physical and mental freedom which her moral nature demands.

I know the only hindrance to success in the right course with me is human blindness. I have enough life to help me seek for more. 'Tis this which prompts every act of mine, no matter how it may seem to others. A firm confident trust in the perfect boon of liberty is the sustaining power of my being."

RECITATIONS.

Mrs. Budd recited some verses on the origin of "Yankee Doodle," and supplemented with a hornpipe to the measure of the air, and Mrs. Richardson read an original poem on "Old Glory," interspersed with singing by the chorus of little girls. This was followed by the neatest feature of all, a flag drill by sixteen misses under the direction of Miss Balthis. Their maneuvers were exact in time and pretty in effect. This closed the exercises.

Notice.

The Board of Supervisors will hold its meetings during the month of July, 1893, in DeWitt hall on I street, between Mariposa and Fresno streets.

THE LAST RITES.

John Sontag's Remains Buried July 4th.

VERDICT OF THE CORONER'S JURY

Father Garriga Performs the Last Offices of the Church for the Dead.

On the afternoon of the Fourth of July the remains of John Contant alias Sontag were laid away in the Catholic plot of the Mountain View cemetery.

About 2 o'clock in the afternoon the remains were taken to the Catholic church where Father Garriga said mass for the repose of the soul and afterward preached a sermon calculated to carry comfort to the heart of the dead man's mother.

He further dwelt at some length on the dead man's carreer and the fact that he had only been accused, but not convicted of crime. He urged the presumption of innocence prevailed until guilt was proven.

There was a large attendance at the church services, but scarcely anyone went out to the cemetery with the remains.

Yesterday afternoon the coroner's jury met and after hearing further testimony as to the character of the wounds and the cause of death rendered their verdict.

The jury in the inquest into the cause of the death of John Sontag returned a verdict to the effect that the deceased, John Contant, alias Sontag, was a native of Minnesota, aged 33 years, and came to his death on July 3d from lockjaw, superinduced by gunshot wounds inflicted by a posse of United States marshals, composed of George E. Gard, Fred Jackson, Thomas Burns and Hi Rapeljo, in an encounter at Stone Corral, in Tulare county, while such officers were in the discharge of their duties. The verdict was signed by Dante R. Prince, J. M. Statham, Louis E. Prusso, S. S. Culver, A. D. Ewing, F. W. Berry, D. Dismukes, E. Anderson, B. H. Gillespie, H. Bedford and G. M. Boles.

Notice.
